Had a bad trouble during the night from back wind and shallow water being grounded in the mud several times. Arrived at our destination about 8 o'clock and after some food went ashore to an Indian village up a small creek in the mangroves. about 2 chains round on poles about 4 feet above the ground on a little mud knoll the surrounding ground which is flooded at every high tide. The women were all engaged in dressing the fibre and hammock making. Fibre being made from the fibre of a palm type: the new leaf only being used for the purpose visited the village again in the afternoon. the old Indian having returned with a kappo. and again which his dogs had run down the last half a kappo over 6 m. the kappo trap with Indian up creek and down a quarter that grows. this plant bird & a red howler (monkey) shot with his 405 and so badly torn we threw it away. Went out in Curiara with Philip & Capt Lasalle and gathered several palms etc along the Cano.

Returned to the boat a little after sundown to find the whole crowd of Indians still there having had their after the hunt. Joseph & some of them had a Indian and was discussing music, they all left after dark for their Camp. We heard them playing some other instrument later in evening. Left about 9.2 after for Camisea Cano

Clear

Started from our anchorage of last night at dawn and stayed up the Paranipe with the tide tied up after the tide changed and went on up the river with the changing tide. This is the most beautiful stream I have ever been on. a great diversity of vegetation more than we have ever seen

Ther TUESDAY, JAN. 31, 1911 Wea.

Cloudy

Started up stream at 5 a.m. heavy rain as we drifted. The rain had subsided. Alejandro went out and collected some wood. On next tide reached Indian village after dark. Brightly lighted & very noisy

Frank and I took trip in Canoe upstream with Kanoe at paddle a most beautiful place.
Got 5 new plants and Frank shot 6 birds. left on the tree about 1 o'clock and got down nearly to Indian Valley before we had to anchor moved again at 1 o'clock and went up 4 hours.
Had heavy shower in the late afternoon. Still at it when we hung the hammocks for night.

partly cloudy

Sun came out warm, had to change a lot of the dried plants which got papers wet in box from rain seeping in spent rest of morning in boat. Started down river with tide at 12.30 and after breakfast went off in canoe with the genial but returns to bat an account of shower. Later with genial in Rancon with paddle we drifted down stream. Genial shot Muscovi duck with .28 gun and I shot. Knocked down second bird but did not get it as it paddled into mangroves. Cool but fly. Two alligators took to water as we paddled the second very close to us and made great splashing in mud as he got away. Saw small blue herons floating on logs

Clear

A very clear morning after a similar night, dew extremely heavy and everything soaking wet. had a fine bath but the water was warmer & not as clear as further up river. Sun is very hot, will have showers likely later. Commenced to rain about noon and continued through the afternoon developing into a thunder storm. stopped raining before dark and did not shower again during night. after ascend river reached the bar at mouth of Juanipe. The ~~mos~~ of this today were the worst we have seen, the small greenback black winged species being especially bad with a good sprinkling of green heads & black horses about when it rained. a few mosquitoes at dinner but practically none [illegible] at the Imaipe bar waiting for tide sun is up hot. Heard more birds early this morning than at any time during trip. after coffee Aguinaldo General went off in Carrero and came back with a great blue heron. sailed for Indian settlement on Lagoe about 8.00 arriving there about 2.00 Aguire and Aguado went ashore in the Carrero. Flies very annoying. Had a hard shower about 1.30 which continued for some little time making things uncomfortable but sun soon dried all up. Aguinaldo General returned with the information that a dog had been taken the night before by a tiger and that the Indians were making a trap which however would not be finished tonight

Ther. TUESDAY, FEB. 7, 1911 Wea.

Cloudy

Up about 5.30 to find the general's boat just coming in. Were all waked last night by a great yelling at the indian village. and later learned from old Indian and Creole that the tiger had again visited camp and tried to take one of the three dogs tied under his hammock, it had brushed against two of the children and might easily have taken one, they will finish trap today. Left the cargo on the tide and sailed to the mangrove sailing until night with fair wind left this morning with the them with Ramon and shot four Had a very heavy rain which continued more than an hour Frank &c returning during it wet through. Mosquitoes were bad in evening as we anchored near shore near Koatis palace

Cloudy

The mosquitos still bad when we got up at 5.45. after Coffee went in Canoe with Frank & Ernie, Ramon paddling. got a fair lot of birds, a number new ones. got several good plants, a purple bignonia in large clusters and a Nymphaeaceous one on the waters edge with spiny seed pods. grey. a dye. Large islands in varying ages composed of Eichornia, Limnobium and other aquatics kept floating by a current all day as well as the night previous.

Located a nest of yellow shouldered Marans, Ernie climbed the palmetto stump it was in but cannot reach top. broke his hand but came down. nest had young birds.

overcast & cool

The mosquitoes were around the outside of nets this morning by the thousand. Sailed up to Boca de Veracoa a little village of dozen or more houses on edge of savanna. Noticed a number of cattle which seemed in fair condition. Round visit from government officials to examine boats papers & Bonds & went ashore with them. Took the small Rifle & gun, the former giving much pleasure to the natives practicing on the small birds but without damage to them. A number of natives returned to boat & were given drinks. Later we received an invitation from the Commandante to lunch ashore with him which we did & were entertained after the usual manner; instrumental & vocal. Practically no mosquitoes and a fine rest at the store

Patty Clark went ashore onto the Saramah with Frank very wet mornathen had going. Got some birds but it was difficult to find them when shot. Left for Saramaka after breakfast and stopped at settlement on river, after struck of Saramah and found shot a number of birds. A great grazing country at this time

Canaguto Clear
All went ashore for bath early, a thick mist rising on the mountains and did not had a chance to get washed for two days After breakfast took a walk along shore getting as far as upper Cocoa plantation, gathering a number of new plants. In afternoon went in boat with a Frank to upper plantation but got little seed. Alejandro lunched & dined with us

Conaquetto Clear
Many drifting clouds passing with a good breeze.
Put plants in press this morning but the wind is so high did not attempt more.
Went ashore and gathered number of new plants among the most not. ~~by getting on~~ ~~Pines high on the~~ on the east side of bay in the dogs. Then took station at the ~~only~~ for the next tide a change was made ~~to~~ the west ~~and~~ on the hillside ~~last~~ must come again as it was interesting.

Consequents. Clear Went ashore after breakfast took a walk and took much delight in the Abyssinian children that came up the hillside to see the strangers. Among them is almost like he had no fears with me. Among only white men. I got a few butterflies but they are not as abundant as in former visit. Kept quiet on boat in afternoon

Consequently Clear heat added after meat for with potatoes & chow chow & bread & molasses & milk they were, then the dogs ran & me, left them at Rin & went about a half a dist & came also around & to, & home then & & Cream for me

Cornfield Cloudy has had showers + thunder earthquakes. After the morning bath breakfast, drank, & some self went to last line of bay. Iroquois gang on the Cocoanuts with Step-Ther-mister. Gathered a number plants along the shore which we cut them up on the hill top. No rain plants down but got a mile of rubber vines (wild). [illegible] [illegible] with [illegible] [illegible] ... lowest for Rating.

Caracas Clear
Office morning after a windy night and the most noisy time I have had since I have been here. Alejandro and Alicia breakfast with us and the Consul in Curaçao up the east side of bay, landing beyond the fort & walking to Caracas got a number of nice birds on the way but did not obtain specimens, but added in addition but got nothing!
This makes one added to the collection.

Clear

Night is beautifully clear and the stars fine.

Ther. ~~Friday~~ Thursday, Dec. 29, 1911 Wea.

Partly cloudy
strong trade wind blowing this morning and kicking up a little sea but boat is very steady and there is hardly any perceptible motion Ran into clear weather about noon. Saw one fish flying fish today but not many of them.
Settled in a little cloudy at nightfall.

wind a little stronger after Sundown

Ther. ~~SUNDAY~~ Saturday, DEC. 31, 1910 Wea.

Fine clear day - more calm than last evening.
1.15 saw the first sea bird; since Wednesday noon when the herring gulls left. pure white with flight like tropic bird but too far away to distinguish, must have been a tern.
